

Liquid Coffin

By

Jen Farrow

Jen Farrow
+61 468 523 145

EXT. ST PATRICK'S CATHEDRAL, MELBOURNE. DAY.

DETECTIVE INSPECTOR CHRISTIE (39) wears a respectable suit, and holds his signature cane, as he walks past St Patrick's Cathedral. CHRISTIE spots MOONLIGHTER (30) who is carrying a child's coffin covered in a cloth. He examines his face, then opens up his notebook. He takes out a wanted poster and compares the face on the poster to that of the man walking past.

CHRISTIE notices that the faces match, and follows the man down the street.

EXT. COBBLESTONE STREET. DAY.

CHRISTIE shadows MOONLIGHTER down the street. CHRISTIE sees MOONLIGHTER enter a residence off the street. CHRISTIE then follows him.

EXT. MOONLIGHTER'S BACKYARD. DAY.

CHRISTIE peaks over the fence into the backyard. MOONLIGHTER is unpacking empty bottles from the coffin and replacing them with full bottles.

CHRISTIE then brandishes his revolver and enters the backyard.

CHRISTIE

I am Detective Christie. You must surrender.

MOONLIGHTER drops the bottle he is holding and stands up. MOONLIGHTER looks for an exit, however there is none.

MOONLIGHTER

All right, Mr. Christie, I give in.

CHRISTIE pockets his gun, and proceeds to arrest MOONLIGHTER.